

PROGRESS MADE ON WEBER GYM

CULLEY REPORTS ON CONVENTION

Official Statement Says Institution Will Be for Benefit of Entire Community

Official information upon progress being made in connection with the Weber gymnasium, together with an appeal to the wards to be prompt in their contributions, is contained in a statement issued today by the president of the three stakes.

"Every progressive citizen should make an investment in the gymnasium," the statement says. "Every which will nominate officers to be elected this afternoon."

The gymnasium is to be for the benefit of the entire community, says the statement, the text of which is as follows:

Text of Statement.

"Several months ago, the officers of the three stakes in Weber county, at a special meeting held in the assembly hall of Weber normal college, voted unanimously to assist in the building of a gymnasium for Weber county. Since that date, meetings have been held in the various communities, in which the support of the people to this commendable movement has been secured, together with sufficient contributions and pledges to justify the letting of contracts, and to assure the continuous progress of the building from foundation to furnishings.

Benefit to All.

"The gymnasium, when completed, will be a credit as well as a benefit to the entire community. A little booklet now being printed will soon be ready for distribution, setting forth details of the plans and purposes of this much-needed public institution. We feel sure that the structure as finally approved by the central committee will satisfy the aesthetic as well as the utilitarian tastes of all who are interested.

"The church has purchased additional land on the college block, thus making ample provision for the inevitable growth of this approved normal school. In addition, the trust-in-trust will give $150,000, or one-half the estimated cost of the gymnasium.

Work is Underway.

"Work has already begun. Excavation is completed, contract is let for the hauling of the gravel, bids have been submitted for the lumber and cement, necessary machinery is on the ground and everything is in readiness for pushing the work to completion.

"We deem it an opportune time now to urge that those who have promised financial aid and all others who appreciate the value of this social center, will give without delay their contributions to the treasurers in their respective wards, the general donors to send their money direct to President John Watson, general treasurer. He will give each his proper credit. We may suggest further that donors should not wait until they are able to send in their entire contribution, but make payments in monthly installments. This will enable the treasurer to meet current bills and take advantage of all available discounts.

Good Investment.

"We do not hesitate to say that every progressive citizen in the city and county should make an investment in the gymnasium. Every hundred dollars so invested will bring abundant returns in social refinement, true culture and dependable, loyal citizenship, for, after all, the truest test of civilization is not the census nor the size of cities, nor the crops, no, but the kind of men the country turns out.

"Everybody now for the Weber gymnasium!"

Bishop Moulton Unable to Preach Here Sunday

Arthur W. Moulton, Episcopal bishop at Salt Lake, will be unable to preach the sermon at the Church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday morning as recently announced. Bishop Moulton wrote the Rev. John W. Hyslop, rector, that he was engaged to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Utah Agricultural college at Logan that morning and that the appointment had been made through misunderstanding. He will, however, come to Ogden on June 13 to preach here and greet local parishioners.

Bishop Moulton will give the baccalaureate sermon of the Rowland school for girls the morning of June 6 and that of the University of Utah in the evening.

Palmer to Preach Sunday as Usual

Dr. Ray Palmer, who announced that he would be absent from his pulpit Sunday has changed his plans and will preach in the First Baptist church as usual. He will use as his text at the 11 a. m. session, "Eternal Life," the third of a series on "Why I am a Baptist."

Ogden Man Tells State Drugists of Sessions at National Convention

John Culley, Ogden druggist, gave his report as delegate to the American pharmaceutical association convention recently held in Chicago, at the state convention of pharmacists which was opened yesterday in Salt Lake. Mr. Culley was named during the afternoon session in Salt Lake as a member of the nominating committee, nasium," the statement says. "Every which will nominate officers to be elected this afternoon."

President's Address.

The president, Frank J. Folland, who presided and delivered the president's address at the forenoon meeting, said in part:

"The spirit of cooperation means success in every endeavor and we should get closer together in business. I suggest that a committee be appointed to visit all pharmacists of the state, in order to enlist their aid in helping to better serve the public by means of an organized body. County organizations affiliated with the state association should also be formed.

"The shortage of help at the present time is a serious problem to all druggists. Because of the long hours in which a pharmacist must work to make a living, few seek the trade as a vocation. The help is also not as efficient as it should be. There should be shorter hours and better working conditions. A school of pharmacy has been started at the University of Utah which should be taken advantage of."

Address of Welcome.

In the address of welcome, F. C. Schramm, for the Salt Lake Commercial club, made a stirring plea for Utah and its scenic wonderlands, "We should boost Utah more than we do," said Mr. Schramm, "and bring the attention, not only of Utahns, but of the world, to the beauties and opportunities found in the state. This year when hundreds will visit the state preparations should be made now to take care of them efficiently and to extend the glad hand of fellowship to everyone."

After the invocation by S. H. Goodwin of Salt Lake, roll call by Secretary E. L. Wade showed seventy-five druggists represented at the convention. In the secretary's report he said there were 180 members, thirty-five new members having recently joined the association.

George A. Husher of Murray, treasurer, made the annual report. An auditing committee was appointed consisting of Frank Whitworth, Rembert Farr and Frank P. Sherrwood of Salt Lake, and a nominating committee consisting of F. C. Schramm, Hugh Druell and W. H. Dayton of Salt Lake and John Culley of Ogden.

SHOE SALE

THE REASON:

The spring season has been very backward, as you all know. Mr. Jones did not know this backward season was coming when he bought the largest spring stock of shoes he has ever owned. Therefore, with this backward season, people have not bought the number of pairs of shoes they would have bought had the weather been reasonable. Consequently, the Jones shoe stock is far heavier than it should be this late in the season. Now that the spring weather is here, Mr. Jones is putting on this

IDAHO RAILROAD HEARING IS SET

Ordered by I. C. C. to Open at Boise on July 19

Hearing of the complaint of the state of Idaho and public utilities commission of Idaho against the Oregon Short Line and other railroads has been ordered by the interstate commerce commission to open in Boise, July 19, according to Washington dispatches which reached here this morning. At this hearing will be taken up the petition of the state under the new transportation act for an order directing the Northern Pacific, the Camas Prairie and the P. I. & N. to build about 100 miles of new road between Grangeville and New Meadows in order to afford a direct rail route between north and south Idaho.

The defendant carriers have filed written answer to the state's complaint, in which, without exception, they protest against the proposed order and contend that this link, if built, would not be remunerative.

The Northern Pacific and Camas Prairie roads filed practically identical answers, in which they deny that it is reasonably required in the interest of public convenience and necessity that they be required to build this piece of road. They assert that such a line would be enormously expensive to construct and maintain, that it would traverse a country that offers no reasonable prospect of sufficient traffic to justify its construction, and assert that the great expense involved in its construction would seriously impair the railroads' ability to perform their duty toward the public.

A more extensive answer is filed by the O. W. R. & N.

Following the invocation a quartet made up of Mrs. Myrtle B. Higley, Miss Mildred Ware, Bernard G. Hutchinson and Frank Ware will sing "The Flag Without a Stain."

The Rev. John W. Hyslop will give the history of the flag.

Members of the lodge and the audience will join in singing the national anthem.

The beautiful floral altar service, part of the Elks' lodge ritual, is the next event on the program. This will be followed by another selection by the quartet.

GIVES REPORT ON BOY SCOUTS

George W. Goddard Tells of Accomplishments by Rotary Club During Year

George W. Goddard, Ogden Rotary club chairman of the local Boy Scout organization, submitted a report on the scout activities during the year at a meeting of the club yesterday.

The report showed that there had been received a total sum of $4603.82. Disbursements for the year amounted to $4519.84, leaving a balance of $83.98 in the treasury.

Mr. Goddard told in detail of the good work performed in behalf of the boys of Ogden and emphasized the necessity of raising the amount of the budget for next year's work. Estimates of the committee indicate that about $9000 will be needed to carry on the work. This would include about $2000 to be utilized for the establishment of a permanent summer camp.

The organization at the time of its inception under the direction of the Rotary club about a year ago had but 120 members. There are now 22 troops consisting of approximately 716 members and six more troops are being formed, which will bring the total membership to 824.

The club adopted the report of the chairman and pledged its membership to continue in support of the organization and raise the prescribed amount needed this year.

Charles M. Miller, deputy national scout executive, spoke to the Rotarians in the interest of the scout organization. He congratulated the club on its loyal spirit and the splendid showing it had made.

He pointed out that last year it cost Ogden but $5 for expenses of each Boy Scout, while in some towns the per capita runs into hundreds of dollars.

Arrange for Picture.

Joseph F. Goss, manager of the Orpheum theater, announced that he would arrange for a picture at his theater on one day during scout week and would donate the proceeds to the scout fund.

Leslie Hodgson, chairman of the committee on location of a site for a stadium at Ogden reported that the site near the state school for the deaf and blind was unsuitable. He advised the club to locate some other site or get behind the movement to erect a stadium at Monroe park. His report was adopted.

The Ogden club voted $500 as its share of the cost to send the Logan Rotary Glee club to the international convention at Atlantic City June 21. The Glee club will represent the states of Utah and Idaho at the convention.

The regular monthly night meeting will be held at the Ogden Golf and Country club Thursday night, June 3, at 7 o'clock.

Property Owners to Meet in Paving Plans

Property owners along North Washington have been invited to meet with the board of city commissioners next Monday evening to go over construction bids which have been received for the paving work in that district. Mayor Frank Francis announced this morning that although the county and state will carry 45 per cent of the expense of paving, the work will cost the property owners $7.65 a front foot. Mayor Francis declared this price was excessive.

The matter will be brought to a decision at the Monday meeting, Mayor Francis said, and the failure of property owners of the district to appear will indicate that they favor the work at the cost announced.
